Attorneys for the persons involved that Hull and his wife expected to return to Waterbury after a short stay in the south. Regarding the settlement, Attorney Kinehart said:

"In this matter, after making an appearance for the defendant, Mr. Hardin, some preliminary motions and the taking of certain testimony, it was developed conclusively that the charges made by the plaintiff Hull were wholly unfounded, in other words, without waiting for the completion of the action, as soon as the suit was brought we proceeded on behalf of the defendant Hardin to force the case to trial."

"The plaintiff Hull came here, and on yesterday, after a consultation with his counsel, Judge Nusbaumer, sent for me, and together they announced their intention of dismissing the suit."

WILLING TO QUIT.

"Mr. Hull voluntarily, and in the presence of myself and his counsel, Judge Nusbaumer, stated that he desired to withdraw his charges by dismissing the suit; that he had acted under undue excitement and with great indirection in commencing the action and had filed the suit under a wholly erroneous and mistaken belief as to the facts underlying his complaint, and to the end that he might make such reparation as he honestly believed to be due the defendant, Mr. Hardin, he would withdraw his case by instructing his counsel to dismiss the action, which has been done."

"Justice to his counsel, Judge Nusbaumer, I will say that I believe the true state of facts were unknown to him at the time the action was brought, and upon learning the true state of facts he acted as only an honorable attorney can, namely, to advise his client that a full retraction and dismissal, such as he has made, was the proper course to pursue."

"The dismissal of the suit was wholly voluntary and made by the plaintiff acting under the advice of his counsel."

"There was no compromise or settlement made, nor any inducement offered or given by the defendant whatsoever. So far as I know this is all there is to be said about the matter."

GRAND JURY REPORT EXPOSES
ALLEGED DREDGER SCANDAL

specifications which it developed, favored the dredger "West Sacramento."

CITY DRAWS WARRANT.
Ultimately the purchase of the dredger was authorized by the city council, a warrant drawn in the amount of $35,000, was made payable to George Clark of the firm of Clark & Henry. Clark came to Oakland from Stockton to get the warrant. He went to the office of the Hanes-Crummey Company, where members of the concern met him and went with him to the city auditor's office. The warrant was taken to the bank and deposited, two drafts being given in exchange.

It was explained that the money received by Crummey was paid by the firm of Clark & Henry for favors done for the latter concern some time ago in a contract at Melford, Ore.

PARK PURCHASES PRAISED.

In addition to the report on the dredger deal, the grand jury made a report on its investigation of the proposed purchase by the city of Oakland of park sites. The action of the city commissioners in regard to the park purchases is commanded by the jury as a whole, although two members filed a minority report. The park purchase proposition was given a clean bill of health, it being pointed out that such lands are desirable and that there is no time like the present for making such purchases; in view of the fact that land values will undoubtedly increase immensely within the next few years.

The report of the grand jury, covering both matters that have been under investigation, is in full as follows:

FINDINGS AS SUBMITTED.

PARTIAL REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY CONCERNING THE PURCHASE OF PARK LANDS AND PURCHASE OF A MUNICIPAL DREDGER AND ITS OPERATION BY THE CITY OF OAKLAND.

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda:

Partial report of the Grand Jury concerning the purchase of park lands and its operation by the City of Oakland.

To the Honorable, the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Alameda:

The Grand Jury of the County of Alameda, having made the following partial report concerning the purchase of park lands and also concerning the purchase of a municipal dredger and its operation by the City of Oakland.

In the matter of the purchase of park lands by the City of Oakland through the Park Directors from Wickham, Haviland, Inc., and the Realty Syndicate Company, known as the Trestle Glen and Sather Park properties, respectively.

This Grand Jury has made an exhaustive investigation as to every feature of the transaction. We have examined the Mayor, and the President of the Park Directors as to their motives and methods in initiating the purchase; we have gone thoroughly through the books and records of the selling corporations and examined the financial condition of each corporation in the matter; we have taken the testimony of both the City and County Assessor, supported by their block books and assessment rolls; we have procure the services of Captain E. E. Parsons of Haynes & Parsons, of Waterbury, and experts to examine the property and to testify as to their value; and lastly, the Grand Jury made a tour of inspection and personal observation. The option to purchase the Trestle Glen property was executed October 1, 1914, and the option to purchase the Sather Park lands was executed October 2, 1914.

The Trestle Glen land, which was purchased by the City of Oakland, was acquired by the Clark & Henry Construction Company and its predecessors from time to time, some of it having been held by a number of persons, including the City of Oakland, or the City of San Francisco. Our investigation disclosed that the portion acquired by the City of Oakland, in this transaction, is assessed by both the City and County Assessors for approximately fifty per cent of the price paid.

The testimony shows that the options to purchase the property were secured on the initiative of the city's representatives direct from the owners, at net price. We find that there are some seven or eight lots in the property acquired by the city, and the roads for which the city is paying nothing.

The experts were men who have had a wide experience in land values. They made a very careful examination of the property and spared no pains to ascertain the value. We find that the value of both of the options that the price paid by the city for the property was a fair one.

COMPROMISE PRICE.

The testimony also shows that strenuous and long continued efforts were made by the Mayor and President Manuel of the Park Board, to obtain the lowest price, and negotiations had reached the breaking point.

The Trestle Glen property, which includes the Sather property, which adjoins the Trestle Glen property, and makes a continuous Glen property, has been purchased by the Realty Syndicate Company and its predecessors in interest from time to time, some of it having been held by a number of persons, including the City of Oakland, or some other purchaser.

Missing Boston Agent Is Sought in Chicago

By Associated Press.
POSTON, Feb. 11.—Search for Henry Clay Coe Jr., the missing Standard Oil sales agent, turned last night to Chicago. Three private detectives left for that city after word had been received that a man believed to be Coe had purchased a ticket there on February 1 for a point in the West. Investigation yesterday apparently had placed Coe on a Chicago-bound train out of Boston on the night of January 30, the date he disappeared.

Another development was the receipt by A. A. Ahlert, Coe's father-in-law, of a letter stating that the young man was being held for ransom, this latter, demanding $1000, was turned over to a postoffice inspector.

$11,000,000 Fund to Pension Pastors Asked

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—A campaign for a fund of $11,000,000 with which to provide for retired ministers and for widows and orphans of ministers of the Methodist-Episcopal church of the United States will be made this year, according to action taken at the annual meeting of the board of conference claimants of the church here yesterday.

There are 7000 claimants in the United States, it was said, and their claim for 1914 amounted to $1,600,000, or about $500,000 more than the church fund had provided. To meet this deficit and to provide for an adequate fund for 1915-16, the campaign for $11,000,000 is to be made.

RAILROADS REDUCE LONG-HAUL RATES

in the neighborhood of Chicago would have either lost their Pacific customers or have been compelled to migrate to near the Atlantic seaboard.

"In this emergency a greater degree of relief on certain commodities to inter-mountain points has been accorded by the commission, but only on the commodities in question. The net result of the greater relief is that industries in the Chicago and Middle West section will continue in the business of supplying customers on the Pacific."

DIFFERENTIAL RATES.

The order permits railroads to carry carload freight from Chicago, Buffalo and New York to intermediate points, 15, 25 and 35 cents higher than from the Missouri river to the same destinations and less than carload commodity rates from Chicago, Pittsburgh and New York to intermediate points may exceed those from the Missouri river to the same destinations by 25, 40 and 50 cents respectively.

Carload rates on coal and pig iron may be less to the Pacific Coast than to intermediate points, but the rates on such articles to the higher rated intermediate points must not exceed 5 mills per ton mile.

"The Pacific Coast terminals to which these rates will apply," says the explanation, "are the points at which the Atlantic-Pacific steamships deliver their freight."

"It is evident from the whole record," says the commission's opinion, "that whatever may have been the degree of competition in the past between the rail carriers and the water carriers as to these articles, concerning which additional relief is now sought, we are witnessing the beginning of a new era of transportation between the Atlantic and the Pacific Coasts."

RIGHTS OF RAILROADS.

"To secure any considerable percentage of this coast to coast traffic rates on many commodities must be established by the rail lines materially lower than those now existing. As we view it, the Panama Canal is to be one of the agencies of transportation between the East and the West, but not necessarily the sole carrier."

"If the railroads are able to make such rates from the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific Coast as will hold to their lines some portion of this traffic with profit to themselves, they should be permitted to do so. The acceptance of this traffic will add something to their net revenues and to that extent decrease, and not increase, the burden that must be borne by other traffic. It will also give the shippers at the coast the benefit of an additional and a competitive service."

"We are of the opinion that these carriers should be permitted to compete for this long distance traffic so long as it may be secured at rates which clearly cover the out-of-pocket cost."

The commission says that few, if any, of the intervening interests really oppose the petition of the carriers, but that the inter-mountain territory protested.

The commission suggests that the railroads themselves readjust the so-called "back haul" rates from the Pacific Coast to points inland.

INCREASE AUTHORIZED.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Authority was given the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and other trans-continental railroads by the Interstate Commerce Commission today to increase rates on flour in carloads from 14 to 75 cents per 100 pounds from points in Kansas, Nebraska and neighboring states to California terminals, provided that the difference between the rates on wheat and flour does not exceed 10 cents and the rates to the terminals do not exceed those to intermediate points. In the opinion, Commissioner Clements says the evidence seems to justify a higher rate on flour than wheat.

GERMANS EVACUATE LODZ

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Feb. 11, 6:50 a. m.—The evacuation of Lodz by the Germans has been confirmed, according to a Petrograd dispatch to the Havas News Agency, which states that vast stores, offices, commissariat and troops are being removed to Kalisz.

A refugee, who escaped to Czestochowa, the dispatch credits with the statement that the Germans have resumed with redoubled vigor the construction of heavily fortified lines which was suspended six weeks ago.

Lodz, the second city of Poland, was captured by the Germans on December 6 when Field Marshal von Hindenburg began his dash for Warsaw, seventy-five miles to the northeast. The Russians were driven out of the city only after a desperate resistance, according to German reports, although Petrograd contended it was evacuated for strategic reasons. The Russians were reported yesterday to have assumed the offensive on the Warsaw front in an effort to push back the Germans, who are said to have transferred many troops from that region to East Prussia.

BATTLE ON 60-MILE FRONT

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, via Paris, Feb. 11, 6:30 a. m.—The battle which began in the Carpathians on February 7 still is raging furiously along a front of 60 miles, from Mount Polonina-Rum to Mount Mako, according to the latest information received here. In the Moxalobors region, General N. Danko is said to have been obliged to send reinforcements to extricate a Hungarian corps, which was almost cut off.

The Russians are reported to have gained several miles in the valley of Lyutyn, which borders the northern slopes of Polonina Rum, and also advanced half a mile in the valley of Laboz, where the railroad passes. In a single charge by the Russians upon Austro-Hungarian trenches 1500 men are said to have been killed and wounded in three hours of bayonet fighting.

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS

By Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 11.—Five hundred workmen employed in the auto truck body-building department of the Theodore Kunkel plant, went on strike today. The company, it is said, had the workmen filling a large order for bodies for war automobiles for the allies. The majority of the strikers are Hungarians, whose patriotism is said to have caused them to make a technical demand for a 15 per cent increase in pay so they could hold up the work. The strikers are said to admit that the war order is the cause of the strike.

Mr. Kunkel, however, denies this, saying the fifteen blacksmiths who struck yesterday caused the Hungarians to quit work.

CAMPAIGN BEGUN FOR JEWISH WAR RELIEF

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Preliminary steps in a campaign to raise $1,000,000 in the discussion which preceded the adoption of the budget.

In the debate upon the test measure of stimulating industries and increasing the general welfare, Mr. Markoff, one of the deputies of the right, proposed the expulsion from the country of all Germans and the donation of their property to relieve the families of war victims.

"On the left bank of the Vistula there were no special incidents."

Russia's Daily War Bill Is $7,000,000

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, via London, Feb. 11.—Russia's daily war bill, which was estimated at 14,000,000 rubles (£1,711,000) in the discussion which preceded the adoption of the budget.

In the debate upon the test measure of stimulating industries and increasing the general welfare, Mr. Markoff, one of the deputies of the right, proposed the expulsion from the country of all Germans and the donation of their property to relieve the families of war victims.

"If the government had not tolerated German colonization on the Vistula, we argued, thousands of Russian lives would have been saved."

A similar recommendation was made by the council of the empire, which suggested that all Austrians and Germans, except those of Slav origin, be deprived of their lands and that all war prisoners be compelled to work on farms and estates, with special consideration for Slavs.

OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' DRESSES NOT MODEST? WHAT!

Reform Suggestion by Turner Makes Tempest

"If Commissioner Turner thinks high school girls' costumes are gaudy and entirely out of place, what does he think of the stenographers in the city hall? They wear about the same kind of dresses, and so do all the other girls in Oakland—and Mr. Turner might instead of confining his remarks to us spread them all over Oakland!"

So declares Miss Alice Duval, pretty high school girl, who has risen to the status of her schoolmates following Commissioner F. C. Turner's statement that the women's clubs might do well to reform the dress of the schoolgirl rather than the city prison.

Principal C. E. Keyes is scurvyly indifferent to Turner's declaration that the clothes of the high school girls are indecent.

"I think," said Keyes, "that I do not care to be drawn into any argument with Mr. Turner on such a subject. I would rather not comment upon Mr. Turner's supposed views, which I can scarcely believe a man of his standing could have uttered. I shall decline to enter into any controversy with him—but he who has many girls here, and he who looks can use his own judgment in the matter."

ANOTHER GIRL SAYS—

"The costume of the high school girls consists principally of raincoats and dresses," declared Miss Elsie Grafton. "And if they cover a multitude of evils Mr. Turner must have an X-ray eye."

The Girls' Beauty Association, an organization of last year in the Oakland High School, is preparing a protest, and the girls of all three Oakland high schools are preparing to the defense of their wardrobes. Harry Boyle, school director, is their ally, and Harry Bridgeman, purchasing agent, whose discovery that the short skirts of the schoolgirls save the city a fortune in floor oil, quoted an argument for the economic advantage of the new costumes, outside of the aesthetic nature of the garment.

Commissioner Turner's red—not wot of reproach were voted at a meeting of the citizens' council following the news that prominent clubwomen had inspected the city prison and were discussing reforms there.

WHAT TURNER SAID.

"If the women of Oakland want to do some good," said the angry commissioner, "let them focus their attention on the dress of girls at the local high schools and in the intermediate and primary grades."

These girls dress in a scandalous fashion. It is a positive disgrace. The way they dress would not be fitting for a ballroom, much less a young girl at school.

This is the beginning of the tendencies which will later result in downfall and distress.

"It is disconcerting to see these reformers attempting to reform hopeless wrecks of humanity in prison while they allow innocent young girls to go astray."

School Director Harry Boyle at once to the rescue of the girls and their costumes.

"It's preposterous," he declared. "The girls of Oakland dress as properly, if not more so, than those of any other city. The mothers and the girls themselves are well able to take care of the fashions. Besides, there are teachers. They are not asleep by any means. No fault is to be found with the Oakland school girls' dress."

Other members of the party on the tour of investigation were Mrs. Nellie Bullock, Mrs. Helen S. Artieda, Dr. Susan E. Fenton, Mrs. A. E. Carter, Mrs. John Murray, Mrs. Jessie Robinson and Mrs. L. H. Montgomery.

GERMANS IN SHEETS TARGETS FOR FRENCH

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, via Paris, Feb. 11.—Great military activity is apparent in Upper Alsace, especially in the Long valley and in the districts of Pfeffershausen and Rechberg, close to the Swiss frontier, where fierce artillery duels take place every day.

Two hundred German volunteers, covering their uniforms with sheets, so they would not make such exact targets when outlined against the snow, crept up to the barbed wire entanglements in front of the French trenches Wednesday night. They were not discovered until they were about to cut the wire. Then French machine guns opened fire and the Germans were forced to retire, leaving half their number in killed and wounded.

TURKS TERRIBLY SLAUGHTERED.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A dispatch from Constantinople says that the slaughter of the Turks in the recent battles in the Suez canal was more terrible than anything in history. The English are still burrowing the dead by the score as they are buried in the desert. The scores which were sunk in the canal were brought to the surface.

War Summary

The British foreign secretary, Sir Edward Grey, said that it would be useless for the allies to outline terms on which they would discuss peace on account of recent public utterances in Germany.

The day's official war reports showed no significant changes. In France minor battles are in progress in the Argonne, where the Germans claim a measure of success, and in the Vosges.

The Berlin statement says that the Russian army in Northern Poland is still occupying the area of the military authorities in Berlin in a very large degree, if reliance may be placed on news dispatches reaching London from the continent. According to these, Emperor William returned hurriedly to Berlin from the Polish war theater and at once held a prolonged military conference, summoning for this purpose General Von Moltke, Count Von Altenburg, General Von Kessel and many other well-known leaders.

According to the correspondents of certain neutral Danish newspapers, Emperor William thinks the situation generally hopeful, but he is described as greatly depressed over the terrible price in men Germany has had to pay for comparatively limited advances against the entrenched Russians. One account reaching Paris by way of Warsaw speaks of German losses on the Breslau and the Ia River fronts at 45,000 dead. This report is absolutely without confirmation and it has not even been repeated from any other source.

PROTESTS SLAUGHTER.

Nevertheless, Danish military critics say Emperor William has made no protest against this slaughter and that as a result an effort will be made by German war staff to transfer the fighting to some point where the Russians are less formidable entrenched.

The Russian report of the fighting from the extreme north to the extreme southeast of the line through Poland continue optimistic.

The loss of some ground to the Teutonic allies in Bukowina appears to have been more than offset by what the dispatches from Petrograd describe as the strategical importance of the Russian guns in the Carpathians.

The British press finds much cause for comment in the Austrian official admission that the fighting is heavy and vexatious.

In the Carpathians it is evident that both sides are fighting among the most-covered passes, with only the most secret connection with their sources of supplies, a warfare in which the results gained are very difficultly purchased.

GERMANS REINFORCE.

In the extreme north, where the Russians have been conducting a flank movement against the forces of Emperor William in East Prussia, the situation is becoming clearer. The Germans have rushed heavy reinforcements thither and with these men they expect to be able to stall the Russian advance.

The Russians, however, already would appear to be in a position threatening Ingelberg, from which German town the population is reported to have been advised to depart until the present military operations are concluded.

In the western arena of the war the fighting for the past few days has been of relatively small importance.

The situation in the Balkan states appears to London observers to be rapidly crystallizing. Bulgaria will receive a large consignment of her German loan within the next few weeks. Rumania is finding that Austria-Hungary is clearly aiming for a definite statement of her attitude. Nevertheless, it shows no disposition to reveal her intentions to the entente powers. Great Britain, France and Russia seem to be quite satisfied that Rumania's ultimate action will be on their side.

SITUATION IN RUMANIA DEVELOPING CRITICALLY

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—Discussing Rumania's war, the western news service correspondent of the Daily Express says:

"The situation in Rumania is developing rapidly and is likely to become critical at any moment. Austria's activity in the southeast corner of Rumania is increasing, and the Rumanian frontier is considerably strengthened on the Rumanian front and a concentration of Bulgarian troops is possible."

"It is not improbable that the Austrian government will address a note to the British government calling attention to the fact that Spanish troops are parading up the Danube, thus violating Rumanian neutrality, and asking especially about the meaning of Rumania's new purchases of munitions of war."

The correspondent adds that Austria's first act in case of war would be the occupation of Turnu-Sarasi, Rumania, a port on the Danube, twelve miles southeast of Orsova.

"The order has come from Berlin to invade Rumania before launching an attack on Serbia," the correspondent continues. "At every point preparations have been made to throw a great mass of troops toward Krivojavor. More than 400,000 troops are concentrated in the region of Tanzevar."

REPORT ON TORPEDOING FRENCH REFUGEE SHIP

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Feb. 11.—The French government made public the result of the inquiry ordered by the ministry of marine into the torpedoing of the French merchantman Admire Ganteau on October 25, 1914, and gave to representatives in Paris of the neutral powers copies of the memorandum. The vessel was struck by a torpedo fired

Keep the Children Bright and Happy

Happy youngsters must be healthy. The digestive organs of children get out of order as readily as do those of their elders, and the result is equally distressing. When the bowels are clogged with an accumulation of refuse, the stomach is often caused to become irritable and painful from the discomfiture, and is often punished for temper when medical attention is really what is needed.

The next time your child is cross and unhappy, without apparent reason, try giving it a mild laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint is a mild, pleasant tasting combination of simple laxative herbs with Peppermint, and is especially recommended for children because of its flavor. It is available in all drug stores everywhere. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 122 Washington St., Montecello, Ills.

WILL AMY CROCKER BREAK LORD'S WILL

Her Testimony Seeks to Prove Late Millionaire Lawyer Was Married.

Did Amy Crocker Miskin, California's prize matrimonial experimenter, witness the marriage which, if proved, will turn half of the great state of the late Theodore A. Lord, a millionaire lawyer of San Francisco, to Eugene Terreau?

Lord was sued twenty years ago by Miss Ferrier, on a breach of promise charge, according to R. Porter Ashe, who was the first husband of Amy Crocker. The latter says that she saw them married in 1888. Ashe says that his former wife must have been mistaken because she was not at the same place Miss Ferrier was at the time.

In the meantime Mrs. Miskin, also known as Amy Crocker-Ashe-Tillinghast-Miskin, is standing by the claimant of the estate and testified before a surrogate in New York that she witnessed the marriage.

Lord, in his will, said that he was not married. He said:

"I have no wife, no children, nor any person dependent upon me, and therefore I leave my property to the friends who have been kindest to me and whom I esteem most, and think worthy of benefit."

The woman who says she is Lord's widow stated in New York that she was married to Lord in San Francisco on November 24, 1888, and that Amy Crocker-Ashe-Gillingham-Gouraud-Miskin was a witness to the wedding ceremony. R. Porter Ashe said:

"Mrs. Ashe and I were divorced in 1887. As far as I know, she was not in San Francisco the following year. It is possible that she might have been, but quite impossible that she was here and that I should not have known of it at the time. Therefore I would say that the time Mrs. Ashe was not in this city at that time Miss Ferrier says she was married to Lord. I have no recollection of Miss Ferrier," or Mrs. Lord, as she calls herself.

Miss Walter Mead, a widow, who has lived at 1558 Vallejo street, in a house belonging to the Lord estate, for more than twenty years, and was well acquainted with Lord before he went east to make his future residence, denied emphatically yesterday that he had ever been married.

GASTON VERDIER, NOTED MERCHANT, IS DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Stricken with an illness which proved fatal in New York yesterday, Gaston Verdier, president of the City of Paris Drygoods Company, passed away at the Royal Hospital, where he was on his way from Paris to the exposition and to visit the city which he had not seen for nearly a decade.

Gaston Verdier was born in Paris 65 years ago. He first came to San Francisco in 1869, and from that time forward he has been closely identified with the commercial life of this city.

The deceased was here for a year when he first came, went back to fight for France in the Franco-Prussian war, and then came again to San Francisco. He became head of the City of Paris in the late seventies, and continued to direct its affairs here and in France until the time of his sudden death.

Accompanied by his daughter, Marie, he left his home in Meaux, a suburb of Paris, three weeks ago to come to San Francisco.

He leaves a widow in Meaux, three sons, Paul, John and Louis, two of whom are in the French army, and three daughters. One of these was with him in New York, another is Countess de Tessaan and a third is the wife of Monsieur Louchet, a noted art dealer of Paris.

RALSTON TO BECOME MERCANTILE PRESIDENT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Following a stormy trip on the seas of finance, the International Mercantile Company recently declared to be in financial distress, to be replaced by a new corporation, to be known as the American Mercantile Company and which will with the backing of eastern capital carry on the business of the old firm. This is the statement of W. C. Ralston, who is to be president of the new company. The new board of directors, says Ralston, will be announced in a few days.

Ralston declares that eastern capitalists have come to the aid of the company and that, realizing the business is a gamble, they will not expect to have taken over interest in the corporation.

L. Bright will go to New York to become chairman of the board of directors. Several other changes may be made in the company's management.

Ralston states that all changes will be made as soon as possible.

This is the first gold to return to this country, out of the shipments of metal sent to Ottawa from New York at various times since the outbreak of war for the account of the Bank of England in payment of American obligations abroad. The return of the gold was made possible by the extremely low rate of foreign exchange.

POLES APPEAL TO WILSON.

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—A committee representing the Polish Falcons Association of America appealed to President Wilson yesterday to work for a free and independent Poland.

The committee, headed by Dr. J. W. Hirsch, general manager of the Missouri Pacific railroad before the federal arbitration board which is considering wage demands on western railroads. He contended that many rules designed to relieve hardships incident to pioneer conditions, still would have to be applied were the demands of the men granted.

"I have stayed on my engine for hours within sight of my boarding house, unable to get it into the round house," he said.

"Because of such conditions a rule was adopted that an engineer need not run his engine between the round house and the train. This rule cost the Missouri Pacific $255,694 in 1914, although reasons for it have been removed."

N. Y. CENTRAL ISSUES BONDS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The directors of the New York Central Railroad announced yesterday the issuance of $100,000,000 5 per cent 20-year convertible debenture bonds, subject to the approval of the stockholders and public service commission. Her cake baking lessons are attracting much favorable comment and the cakes which she is giving away every day are the talk of the town. Mrs. Vaughn has been most generous with her beautiful flower cakes, giving away a number each afternoon to the women who attend the school and to others who have assisted in making the school a success.

Mrs. Vaughn is certainly an artist, and one of the women who received a dainty rose-colored cake yesterday afternoon, "I never saw any one who could put flowers and ruffles on a cake like she can. It is a pleasure to watch Mrs. Vaughn work. She is deft and quick and makes no useless moves. She works with zest and enthusiasm. She bakes pies and cakes with the same pleasure in her work that an artist takes in painting a beautiful picture or making a statue. She moves swiftly and seems always happy in her work."

CARE FOR THE BODY.

Her talk today on the process of digestion and assimilation was as interesting as a story and women hung with breathless interest on her word and interrupted her again and again with hearty applause. She impressed upon her audience the importance of caring for the body as a receptacle of the soul and said:

"Above all things, keep clean and think clean thoughts. The strong, clean body and clear mind are not easily susceptible of disease. Teach children the laws of digestion and the use of food and start them right in life."

"Mrs. Vaughn is certainly performing a great public service in her Better Foods Better Homes work," said one of the clubwomen of the city, who has interested herself in THE TRIBUNE Home Economics school. "I feel that we cannot appreciate too highly the work she is doing among us and believe that women have a much higher estimate of their work as home-makers than they did before Mrs. Vaughn came to us."

DISHES ATTRACTIVE.

Mrs. Vaughn's cookery lesson this afternoon was one of the most attractive.

DYING PARENTS BEG TO SEE MISSING SON

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—The government authorities at the instance of the commandant of Governor's Island, New York, are making a search for George Clement, 32 years old, who was discharged from Fort McDowell, July 22, last. The young man's mother is very ill at Fort McDowell, and his father is paralyzed in a hospital here. Both are calling for him and it is feared that if he is not soon located he will never again see them alive. The army records show that Clement did not re-enlist, but as he was discharged here, it is thought he is in this neighborhood. He is 5 feet 4 inches tall, with blue eyes, and dark brown hair. He was a member of Company H, Thirteenth Infantry.

WOULD RECOVER DIAMONDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—L. E. Nusbaum, who is residing at the St. Francis hotel, appealed to the police today to aid him in recovering diamonds to the value of $10,000, stolen from him while he was visiting the San Diego Exposition. Nusbaum lost his jewels while dining in a cafe in San Diego and believes that an attempt will be made to dispose of them here.

IN THE KITCHEN.

There is no place in all the house where the laws of sanitation should be so strictly observed as in the kitchen. Borax is more than anything else adapted to the work of the kitchen. It lightens labor—it doubles the cleansing power of soap and water, and makes things shine, sweet and wholesome.

Dish-washing is made easy when Borax is used. Fill the dishpan with hot water and add TWENTY MULE TEAM BORAX SOAP CHIPS or TWENTY MULE TEAM BORAXAID SOAP POWDER. This will make a fine suds and will cut grease and remove all traces of dirt from the dishes, leaving them hygienically clean.

Borax is an antiseptic and a detergent. It has hygienic as well as cleansing qualities.

Flood the kitchen sink twice a week with a strong solution of Borax in water. This will kill the microbes and cleanse the drain pipe thoroughly. Follow this with a rinsing of boiling water.

Forks, spoons, in fact silverware generally, and cut glass, will present a wonderful appearance when washed with Borax preparations.—Adv.

WITH PRAYER FOR POOR YOUTH TURNS TO DEATH

"God help the poor. God will not the destruction of any man."

These words written on a piece of paper were found by the side of Charles Low, Oakland, a young mechanic who is believed to have attempted suicide at 1125 Golden Gate avenue, San Francisco, this morning. He was discovered unconscious with the gas turned on and the burner wrenched from the light fixture.

It was at first thought that the man was dead and Deputy Coroner John Gavan hurried to the scene, only to find that Patrolmen Smith of the Bush street station had discovered a spark of life and had rushed Low to the Central emergency hospital.

Low's address in Oakland could not be found on his person but in an envelope addressed Charles Low, Oakland, Cal., were found postal savings receipts and a few cents.

These were from postoffices in Portland, San Francisco and Oakland.

Low was known of Low at the Golden Gate avenue house, where he registered under the name of Smith. At the hospital it was said that he could not recover.

Electrical apparatus intended for drying beer vats is used for drying motion picture films in a studio in New York City.

CHAUFFEUR HITS BOY, BUT IS NOT BLAMED

Fred Miloccio, a boy living at 4521 Clark street, was knocked down by an auto bus driven by Frank Fleming at Telegraph avenue and Forty-eighth street last night. The boy was slightly injured but was taken to the receiving hospital before being removed to his home.

Fleming is declared by the police who investigated the case to have been blameless in connection with the accident. The boy ran out from behind a garbage wagon and directly in front of Fleming's machine. Fleming was traveling at about 15 miles an hour. He threw on the emergency brakes, but the front wheel of his machine passed over the boy's body.

Fleming ran down Mrs. L. James, 374 Thirty-fifth street, January 18. Mrs. James was only slightly injured and exonerated Fleming from responsibility.

MUSICAL SUNDAY AT SHATTUCK AVE. CHURCH

A musical and literary program has been arranged by the parishioners of the Shattuck Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, starting at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning. The sermon in the morning will be preached by Rev. W. P. Stanley of San Jose. At 6 p. m. a number of lantern slides will be shown by O. D. Jacoby and Al Williams. Mrs. Braden will lead the devotional meeting of the Epworth League, at which a debate will be held. Following the rendition of several songs by the quartet, a choir of eighty voices will sing a musical program which will be followed by an address by the pastor, Rev. E. J. Braden.

JOURNEY 300 MILES AFOOT TO FAIR

Two Well Known Women Writers of Portland Safely Reach San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—Walking from Eureka to San Francisco, a distance of over 300 miles, to visit the exposition, Miss Helen C. Wilson and Miss Anna S. Monroe, two well-known writers of Portland, Ore., members of the Mazama Club of that city, are in San Francisco.

Through the recent storm the two women, accompanied by R. M. Wilson and H. H. Prouty, also members of the Mazama Club, made the journey from Eureka in easy stages. They are very enthusiastic in their praise of the hospitality shown them all along the route.

"The Panama-Pacific is the greatest exposition ever built by man," said Miss Monroe. "California has every reason to be proud of it. The roads we used on our trip from Eureka are the finest that I have ever seen in the world. Everywhere we heard nothing but talk of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Every man, woman and child, it seems, is coming to attend the fair.

THOUSANDS FROM OREGON.

"Oregon will send many thousands during the next few months to visit this great artistic and architectural triumph. The color scheme is far superior to any previous attempts in exposition work. The architecture signifies the birth of a new era in American work along these lines."

Both women will remain in San Francisco to write of the exposition for Eastern papers.

Informality characterized the house-warming at the New Jersey building yesterday afternoon. Colonel Marion E. Moore, an assistant to President R. S. Hudspeth of the New Jersey commission, was host to President Charles C. Moore, Dr. Frederick J. V. Stiff, Captain Asher C. Baker, Mayor James Ralph Jr., H. D. H. Connick and George Hough Perrin.

After tea had been served the distinguished guests a complete inspection of the New Jersey building was made. Every one remarked that the historical reproduction of General Washington's headquarters would no doubt be a popular place to all visitors at the exposition. The presidential suite of rooms on the second floor, in complete readiness for the President, were thrown open to the visitors.

TO COMMEMORATE FIRE.

Members of the Panama-Pacific Insurance Club, who are making plans for the various insurance gatherings during the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, are determined the celebration to be held in the civic auditorium on April 18, 1915, commemorating the great fire of 1906, shall be unusual in its features.

The fact that San Francisco in nine years has been able to rebuild a city and complete such an exposition will be the subject of general and dresses on that day. The subject "The Triumph of the Pursuit of Industries of Peace," has already been discussed with many of the local clergy, who will preach at the meeting.

North Dakota day, on March 16, will be one of the many features planned by the North Dakota commission during the exposition. Will E. Holben, secretary of the commission, is already making elaborate plans for the day. All former residents of North Dakota, who are living in various sections of California are invited to attend and meet the residents of the home state who will be present in large numbers on March 16. Within the next few days all the exhibits will be in place and everything in readiness for opening day.

VANDERBILT CUP EXHIBITED.

For the first time the famous Vanderbilt cup has left New York. This important automobile trophy given by William K. Vanderbilt Jr. to promote automobile racing has been received in San Francisco and is now on exhibition in the windows of Shreve & Co., on Grant avenue. This trophy, which has been raced for every year since 1904, is the most sought-after trophy in the world.

Ralph de Palma and Harry Grant, who have each won twice, are entered for the race that is to be held in the Panama-Pacific International Exposition grounds on Washington's birthday, February 22. Many of the fastest cars and best drivers in the world will be at the starting line when Starter Wagner gives the signal at 10 o'clock.

The sheriffs from all counties in the state are coming to the fair at the invitation of Sheriff Barnet of Alameda county, who is the president of the Sheriff's Association of California and of Sheriff Eggers of San Francisco to take part in the great parade. Only once before in the history of California have so many sheriffs assembled together. That was during the man hunt for Evans and Sontag, famous robbers, in the Sierras. Sheriffs and customs have changed some since.

ATTORNEY IS BADLY INJURED BY AUTO.

While on his way home from the First Presbyterian church last night, D. C. Mitchell, an attorney-at-law, of 1105 Second Avenue, was run down and severely injured at Fourteenth and Webster streets by an automobile driven by Gilbert Atkinson, 423 Vernon street. He was taken to the Emergency hospital where it was found that he had suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries.

Atkinson was crossing the street with his umbrella covering his face and did not see the approaching car. Owing to the slippery street, Atkinson was unable to stop and struck the corner of his head on a stone. Atkinson, at the time of the accident, was his fiance, Miss Helen Larsen, and her mother, Mrs. M. M. Larsen. They conveyed Mitchell to the hospital and then turned themselves over to the police. The party

Atkinson, who is the son of H. M. Atkinson, of the Atkinson Mill & Manufacturing company, declared at the police station that he was driving at about 25 miles an hour, and had not skidded, was unable to avoid the red pedestrian. Mitchell said this morning at the hospital that he did not know how it happened.

His condition this morning is much improved, and his mother is attending him. She says that there are hopes for his recovery. Mr. Mitchell is a native of Indiana and has been interested in mining for some time. He has a son now studying in the University of California.

Leasing of Water Rights.

California and other western states are deeply interested in a measure pending in Congress, against which Senators Smoot of Utah, Works of California and Clarke of Wyoming have filed a minority report, an extensive document covering the legal phases of the proposition. This bill is the measure under which the federal government expects to lease water rights to persons, firms or corporations and is defined as a plan having for an object the better and speedier development for useful and beneficial purposes of the great undeveloped water power of the country, now lagging on account of inadequate and inefficient laws."

The minority very properly directs attention to the importance of the bill with respect to western states where irrigation is necessary in development and cultivation of land, and opposes the proposals to lease because they are antagonistic to the agriculturalists of these commonwealths. Particular objection is made to the plan for leasing water rights for terms of fifty years, it being pointed out that any attempt to limit the life of a plant for the distribution and use of water is wholly at variance with the whole theory of water rights in western states. Emphasis is laid upon the statement that where water is put to use for irrigation, such use must be perpetual, otherwise a land owner might have the water to develop a growing orchard and at a time when the trees therein were ready to bear lose his supply, thus causing their death, to his great financial loss.

Another objection is found in the provision that no lease shall be granted until the right to the water is secured from the state in which it is located. It is set forth that in some of the states this provision would be impossible of execution, because no right to the water could be obtained from the state until the plant to be used in applying it to a beneficial purpose should be completed and approved by the state authorities.

The laws of California in this respect were quoted by the minority in extenso. This bill provides for the control of stocks and bonds issued by water companies by the inter-state commerce commission. But in California this authority is vested in the State Railroad Commission, hence there would be a conflict with respect to the rights of the federal and state bodies in this respect.

Objections are made to the forbidding of incumbrances except in certain cases and it is asserted there is a conflict of authority, the bill providing for federal control of securities, while the committee holds that the right to govern is strictly a state right.

Other objections of legal character are also made. The issue, however, appears to rest on the ownership of water rights. As THE TRIBUNE has indicated, there is a difference in condition between a water right owned by the state and federal government that ought not to exist. With the exception of a few isolated instances, water rights in eastern states have passed from federal to state control, but in the West a mistaken policy disguised as "conservation" keeps title in the federal government, depriving the states of the control of utilities within their borders, lessening their taxation powers and compelling them to pay a tribute to the federal government from which the eastern states have long since been released.

It is hoped that the views of the minority on this measure will obtain and that the measure will not pass, and it is hoped also that Congress will see that the best way to adjudicate water rights and make them useful is through statutory enactment turning them over to the several states, which are much more competent to handle them than the national administration.

Following the reading of the story that smallpox has caused an adjournment of the Arizona legislature we cannot conceal the thought that perhaps, after all that has been said against it, smallpox may be a blessing in disguise.

Election Officials Indicted.

Almost simultaneously with additional indictments found by the grand jury of Alameda county in connection with frauds perpetrated at the last election, comes information that in Sacramento, eight officers who served at the polls in November have been held for trial there for irregularities connected with the count. The offenses charged against two of these men are unique in character. It is said that two judges wore rubber stamps affixed to their thumbs with which they marked ballots as the count proceeded, making imprints wherever opportunity offered and by this means increased the tally for the candidates in whose interest they were working.

But there was a fault in the plans. These stamps did not correspond in shape with the ones authorized and the variation caused the users to be brought to book.

In other precincts it is alleged that officials retired and counted ballots without check and in one instance it is related that the ballot box was taken home by one of the judges and kept there.

THE TRIBUNE regrets exceedingly that such conditions obtain in Sacramento and in this county. But so far as Alameda county is concerned this paper has every confidence in the vigilance, ability and integrity of District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, who has already convicted four men for these grave offenses against the election laws, three of whom are serving state prison terms, while a fourth is making an effort to secure probation. THE TRIBUNE hopes the district attorney of Sacramento will prove equally energetic and that if the accused men in that county are guilty as charged that they will all be given the punishment to which their actions entitle them.

Our Paying Postoffice.

The advocates of government ownership of public utilities, including the telephone and telegraph and deep water ships, point with pride to the postmaster general's report, in which he claims that the postoffice pays its expenses and a profit besides.

The test of the soundness of any business, and its profit, is in charging all of its cost, the deterioration and extension of its plant, against its income. If income shows a margin over cost, that is profit, and the business is sound.

The postoffice charges us $1.25 per pound for our letters, at their average weight. That is $2500 per ton, for collecting, transporting and delivering our letter mail. The express companies collect, transport and deliver our commercial packages. If they charged $2500 per ton for that service there would be a speedy congressional investigation.

The prices charged by the government postoffice on the lower classes of mail, are large in proportion, and an examination of the postmaster general's report discloses the resulting income.

But that report does not balance the cost against the income, because part of it is charged off to other public funds. Postoffices are not built nor rented out of the postal income. That income is not drawn upon to support the plant used. Even the salary of the postmaster general is not taken out of the income of his department, nor are the salaries of the other highly paid officers of the general postoffice. The building in which his office is located in Washington city and the furniture of that office, from desk to spittoon, is not paid for out of postal receipts, but is charged off to a fund of the treasury. It will be seen, then, that no one can tell whether the postoffice pays its way or yields a profit, or a deficit, because all the cost is not charged against its income.

And that is the rule with public ownership of public utilities, and until they are compelled to exist and be administered upon their own income, it is the shallowest deception to claim that they pay.

A PROPOSED EXHIBIT FOR THE FAIR

Optimistic and Otherwise

WITH RESPECT TO THE RAINS.

Far be it from us to "knock" the weather conditions, which are of a character calculated to make the hearts of all Californians rejoice. The copious rainfall is an assurance of great crops next year and consequent prosperity. But one need not refrain from telling a good story when something occurs to remind him, and here is opportunity.

It is related that the late Congressman W. W. Wedemeyer told a story connected with an Alaskan trip. He was on his way to visit the territory on official business and stopped off at Portland. It was during the rainy season, and when it rains in Portland it—well, it rains. Wedemeyer accosted a man at the station thus:

"I say partner, how long has it been raining?"
"How can I tell?" was the reply. "I've only lived here seventeen years."

NO NEWSPAPER MEN IN HEAVEN.

According to the assertions of the Rev. Mr. Arrowsmith of Buffalo, N. Y., or its vicinity, "No newspaper man will ever enter the kingdom of heaven." Perhaps so, but in that event the other place will not be dreaded by some people as much as it is now.

SAW COAL BLACK DEER.

Colusa's Sun is authority for the assertion that a resident of Weaverville, Siskiyou County, while on a recent trip into the woods, says he found plenty of deer feeding in the open country and that in one hand he saw a coal black deer, an animal he had never heard of before.

SOCIALIST COLONY ESTABLISHED.

Eighteen miles from Palmdale, in Antelope Valley, according to the Los Angeles Express, Socialists are establishing a colony, having formed a corporation with $3,000,000 stock to be sold at one dollar a share. Each person desirous to become a member must hold 2000 shares of stock, paid in cash. $500 down and the balance in 8% of 8% from wages earned by the purchaser. Every man in the community, whether skilled or unskilled, will receive $4 a day for services and guarantees of wages being made. All supplies will be furnished from stores and dealers maintained by the company. At present there are about eighty men in the colony, a number of buildings are being erected, including a community club house. The rent of five-room cottages is fixed at $3 per month. There are now about 250 acres under cultivation. The result of this experiment will be watched with considerable interest.

TRAVELING FAKIRS WORK IN AUBURN.

According to the Auburn Herald, a traveling fakir recently worked a game on the merchants of that town, or some of them, by soliciting advancements for the fly-leaves of hymn books which were to be presented free to the Methodist Church. After making some collections the fakir disappeared and has not been seen or heard of since. The Herald opines that it would have been cheaper for the victims to have made small contributions to the church direct.

MARRIED ON ONE SIDE ONLY.

Headlines in a St. Louis paper read: "Four St. Louisans Are Married on East Side," which leads to the query as to why they were not married on both sides at the same time.

IT NEVER WOULD BE MISSED.

It is related that an Eastern friend of Nat Goodwin was staying at the home of the latter in Southern California in the hope of obtaining relief from a chronic dyspeptic condition. Walking along the beach with Goodwin the dyspeptic remarked with some solemnity:

"I have derived relief from drinking a glass of salt water from the tide. Do you think I might take a second?"

Whereupon it is said that Goodwin reflected deeply. "Well," he finally replied with equal seriousness. "I don't think a second would be missed."

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

A squad of policemen under Captain Fletcher had rifle practice at Shellmound Park. The scores made were as follows—five shots at 200 yards: Officer Arness captured the championship with a score of 20 out of a possible 25. Kingsbury, 12; Cockerton, 12; Swain, 15; McCarty, 15; Clark, 15; Shroeder, 15; Captain Fletcher, 15. Chief Shaffer has issued orders for rifle practice twice a month hereafter.

The Grand Jury, which has been in session nearly five months, will present its final report next week. The report will contain many recommendations regarding the county government. The members of jury are as follows: Socrates Huff, foreman; W. B. Hardy, secretary; J. J. White, John M. English, James Nevan, Thomas Hennberry, W. Morrison, F. R. Fassett, John L. Bromley, Wallace Evans, W. R. Emery, Charles Hockell, William Roberts, Thomas Cullinan, Mathey de la Montanya, Henry Dusterberry, James E. Vandepur, W. D. Thomas and Henry Smythe.

The Board of Public Works has re-appointed T. G. Harrison as superintendent of streets for a term of two years. The board has taken time by the forelock and has tried to safely install Mr. Harrison beyond the reach of the new board of public works.

Importance of Emphasis

We are always at a loss to know what to say when a fond mother shows up her baby. Next time we'll try this one: "Well, that is a baby." There is no gainsaying that. It isn't a bit complimentary, but if properly infected sounds like strong praise.—Sedgewick (Kan.) Pantagraph.

FAKE STORY EXPOSED

The story that Mrs. O'Leary, owner of and Jim Hayne was on the Times. Both the cow that kicked over the lamp which of them are dead. I am the only police reporter living who helped to cover the fire to Chicago, is dead near Menomonee, Mich., is slightly erroneous. It is greatest fire in the world's history. It was Jim Hayne, I think, who "faked" the story about the cow kicking over the lamp. No newspaper was printed the morning of October 9, but when the papers were able to get out "extra's" the cow and lamp story was given as the cause of the holocaust.

In after years I met O'Leary and we talked about the fire. He told me that in his opinion it was caused by spontaneous combustion of hay. A couple of weeks before the fire O'Leary had put a ton of green hay in the barn loft. It was an unusually warm, dry spell of weather.

At the time of the fire I was police reporter for the Morning Republican, which later became the Inter Ocean. Johnny English was the Tribune's police reporter

BEEF IN BREAD LINE

Broadway is to have a bread line where the "down and outs" can get coffee with milk and sugar, hot frankfurters and rolls or corned beef sandwiches. James B. Regan of the Hotel Knickerbocker announced last night that these things may be obtained free of charge by all who care to apply at the Forty-first street door—employees entrance of the hotel—today and every day from 3 to 4 o'clock. There are no conditions. The man, woman or child who needs the food can have it. Regan's sentiments in this matter are set forth on a small sign above the serving table:

"Good luck and welcome; better times are coming." All Regan asks is that applicants will have regard for the rights and feelings of his neighbors and that there will be no disorder.—New York Sun.

RADIO ACTIVITY IN SOIL

One of the striking things about the new farming is found in the results of experiments that are leading to the idea that we know still comparatively little about agriculture. For instance, where mining has been carried on in order to get the mineral from which radium is extracted and the soil after treatment is spread on the earth, it has been found to the amazement of those fortunate enough to get it, that where there was a production of, say, 25 bushels of grain to the acre, the product under radio activity was 105.

We do not speculate upon the cause of that, for speculation thus far is idle. We are fast learning new things about earth and soil and everyone who feels that the old-fashioned rule of thumb is good enough in the business of farming, is greatly in error. Farming has been fast rising into a profession, but it has risen faster than ever under recent discoveries in chemistry.

One can see that if radio-activity even in the very faint degree that could be realized from earth that had been treated for the substance itself and thrown out as of no further use, can still multiply crops by four, there are other things in the soil of the earth which may be found available for the immense increase of the food supply of nations.—Kansas City Star.

HEIRESS TAUGHT HIM TO SMOKE!

So Kleist Testifies, Describing
Her as Real Love
Vampire.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Max Kleist, the former gardener and chauffeur for Edward N. Breitling, millionaire banker and ship owner, told a jury in the federal district court here, he alleges, Breitling's daughter made love to him and finally made him a proposal of marriage which he accepted.

Kleist is suing Breitling for $25,000 for alienation of his wife's affections.

"She lured me on," he said today. "She was the first to suggest marriage. I never kissed her until she asked me to. Then I kissed her on the cheek. I never took a drink until she suggested it and she also taught me to smoke cigarettes."

Wave after wave of laughter swept over the courtroom, which Judge Hand promptly checked as Kleist made these statements, all of which were brought out under cross-examination by Delancey Nicoll, counsel for the Breitlings.

Across from him, flanked by her father and mother, sat Miss Breitling, Kleist, amid a series of furious blushes, told the story of his courtship. Nicoll leading him on,

"How did your courtship come about?"

"Miss Breitling made the advances."

"Did you ever tell Miss Breitling you loved her?"

"No."

"Did Miss Breitling teach you to love her?"

"Yes; she did."

"Did you hold her hand?"

"Yes."

"Well, what did you say when she took your hand and told you she loved you?"

"I could not say very much. I was speechless."

"Did you kiss her then?"

"She asked me to kiss her—I refused."

"What?" cried Nicoll as an uproar was renewed in the courtroom.

"Finally I gave her a kiss on the cheek," said Kleist.

" Didn't you court and woo this young woman according to the fashion of men?"

"On days when I didn't see her she would send for me."

"She kept pressing you?"

"Yes, sir."

Nicoll forced the witness to admit that he used on his arrival in New York, November 7, 1913, the name of Maxwell Frederick von Kleist. He denied, however, that he had represented himself as a nobleman to the Breitlings. Finally he said he had registered under an assumed name.

"Yesterday you testified you had never used a false name."

"I only did it when Juliet told me to."

"Oh, she tempted you again?"

"Yes, she tempted me all along."

At Local Playhouses

ORPHEUM

Long Live Fan at "A Orpheum" is the talk of the town. This wonderful celestial, with his ten assistants, has brought the greatest novelty to the Orpheum that ever that the theater has shown. Ching Ling Foo's costume changes its engagement next Saturday night, as does every other act on the bill with single exception of the Marion Vadic Dancing Company.

The Orpheum management announces that hereafter there will be seven absolutely new acts on the program each week. There will be one holdover only.

The current entertainment includes Kate Elton and Sam Williams, who are a great laughing bill; Miss Marion Vadic and company in a series of lyric dances; Harry Fall, a beautician, who is to visit the city; the famous character song slides; the Solit Duo, who are modern minstle dancers; the Aerial Costas in picturesquely hazardous, and Jack F. Farley in his famous travesty.

The new eight-act bill at the Orpheum consists of: Ching Ling Foo, the famous high salaried monologist, and the National Dancing Five.

PANTAGES

Members of Jean Tracy's heart interest story Sophie Treadwell are seeing the girl in person this week at the Pantages theater, where she is the star. Sophie's heart is strong but Miss Tracy is quite good in the star role, taken from an actual incident in her life which was molded into sketch form by Sophie Treadwell, who has given it the title of "The Girl in the Window."

The Pantages circuit numbers include a troupe of 11 expert Judo athletes; Danny Simmons with new stories; Ted and Uno Bradley, singer and comedy singers; Jules Verne, and company, singers; Wright and Lane, society singers and comedy pictures.

Next week there will be three headliners on the new eight-act bill: the Fal伦ers in their new eight-act bill; the Pantages troupe, with Sophie Treadwell, and the National Dancing Five.

OAKLAND PHOTO

Lillian Russell is playing for the last time today in a film version of her hit "The Love Pirates," the vehicle employed by those buccaneers of fun, Dillon and King, in their attack on gloom and grouch at the Columbia this weekend.

The players who support the comedians this week in the exceedingly well cast George Spaulding gives a natural characterization of the village constable, while Vilma Stech and Ruby Lane are thoroughly at ease in the feminine roles.

Paisley Noon as the Doctor, and Jack Wise as the salesmen are happily cast. The small roles are capably played by Orlon, Gandy and Madeline.

The musical program this week is extremely enjoyable. Vilma Stech and Paisley Noon contribute a charming specialty, while Jack Wise and the Gurus sing "The Bowery Fair Song." The latest songs by critics as the finest of the songs written in honor of the exposition is proving a tremendous success.

John Barrymore in "The Man in Tennessee," a new musical comedy, and the Gargantuan Klaw and Erlanger production. Two other pictures are also included. On Saturday the performances will be continuous from 1:30 to 11.

FRANKLIN

Charles Chaplin heads the new bill at the Franklin theater today in "His New Job," his first production with the Essanay company. It is said to be a bittersweet comedy, full of pathos and contains all the original and eccentric humorisms that have contributed to the popularity of the comedian.

Although Charles Chaplin has not been long in the film field, he is popular and his great success is due to the fact that today he is drawing a larger salary than any man working before the camera.

In addition to the "Chaplin picture," there will be a "Celebration Day" in Tennessee, a new musical comedy, and the Gargantuan Klaw and Erlanger production.

Two other pictures are also included. On Saturday the performances will be continuous from 1:30 to 11.

SUES FOR DAMAGES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—A suit for damages was begun against the Pacifica Realty company by Mrs. Catherine Black today in which she seeks to recover $552.50. She declares that Louis P. Moeller, president of the Pacifica Realty company, and his wife, Mrs. Moeller, were responsible for the damage.

According to Mrs. Moeller, she was walking down Sixth street when she noticed that her car was being followed by a man who was more thoroughly studied. "It is no means certain that it has no dangerous

Miss Bessie Wood, who arranged the program yesterday, urged the clubmen to join in and promote the city beautiful movement by planting the adopted flower of Oakland, the geranium, in every available section or soil that may be available. In order to get the flowers to grow, she reminded them that when they wished to impress visitors with the charms of Oakland, they usually took them to Cragmont or along some boulevard where the streets were clean and the trees and flowers were in bloom.

"Don't go to the flower show and trees and flowers," she remarked. Her audience admitted this in a general laugh.

Another topic presented was "What Life Insurance Means to Women," which was discussed by Mrs. Joseph E. Clegg, president of the International Association of Women.

Miss Wood also spoke on the importance of the Civic Club.

SOLITAIRE IS OUT OF MODE Styles Change in Rings, Brides Learn

Mrs. Dudley Dexter's engagement ring, which was so suddenly removed yesterday to be slipped on again over a wedding ring, has been extravagantly admired. At Miss Bornemann's tea and at other affairs given for the two Miss Haines, the wife so much admired before she slipped away so quietly into matrimony, everyone asked to see it, and Miss Haines' slim left hand was obligingly held forth.

It is a ring of diamonds set in platinum, one large stone with smaller ones on either side, following a present fashion. Likewise following the fashion, a very narrow band of yellow gold is the wedding ring beneath it; for there are fashions in engagement rings, as in everything else, it seems.

A few years ago no girl would have felt really engaged without a solitaire. It was the badge of the betrothal. Mothers and grandmothers of the younger set all wear them with the broad bands of gold, those of the grandmothers extraordinarily broad and heavy, they assumed at their weddings.

But the fiancees of today wear platinum, and there is an interesting variety of rings, with diamonds still the favorites, but in clusters.

Occasionally a solitaire is set in filigree with tiny stones in the pattern. Or in the center of a ring of diamonds. But if one prefers emeralds or rubies it is perfectly permissible and binding to wear them. Mrs. John Gallos' engagement ring was a huge emerald in platinum. She wore it as Elizabeth McMullan in Oakland. But wedding rings are all alike, narrow yellow bands, though, of course, has a different marking within.

TEACHER-MOTHERS IN NEW YORK REINSTATED

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The board of education revoked last night the suspension of Mrs. Lora H. Wagner, the teacher of the Tottenville High school, whose application for a leave of absence, prior to the birth of her child, was refused.

The suspension was revoked, provided that the charge be withdrawn and that Mrs. Wagner be restored to duty at once. Similar action was taken in sixteen other teacher-mother cases.

The action of the board followed a recent decision of State Commissioner of Education Finley, who handed down an opinion in the case of Mrs. Bridget C. Petrotto, which set aside the board's order of dismissal and itself was based on a decision of the court of appeals.

PORLTAND, Ore., Feb. 11.—Mandamus proceedings were instituted in the Circuit court yesterday by Mrs. Maud L. Richards, a teacher, against the school board to have her suspension removed from a position in the Portland schools, from which she was discharged on January 5 last, because, as she alleges, she had been married on the previous day.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 11.—A real life drama with moving picture characters was staged in Judge Monroe's court when Mrs. Elsie Ford asked a divorce from Francis Ford. Mrs. Ford asked the custody of their child, Robert. Mrs. Ford named as one of the alleged causes of her domestic troubles, Miss Grace Cunard, a leading man with a big moving picture company.

Mrs. Cunard is leading woman with the same company.

Mrs. Ford's story was set forth in her complaint, which is really told in "In 1915 I want to visit my mother in New York city," the complaint recites. "After remaining until February 14, 1914, I received a message from Mr. Ford directing me to return to Los Angeles, and on the 11th, Mr. Ford's letter did not contain the wherewithal and I was unable to do so.

"Later I borrowed $200 and returned to Los Angeles. I discovered that Mr. Ford and Miss Cunard had become very much devoted to each other.

Mrs. Ford concluded with an assertion that her husband earns $300 a month.

STUDENTS PETITION TO SAVE LIFE OF BUNDY

In an effort to influence Governor Hiram W. Johnson to commute the death sentence of Louis Bundy, 18-year-old boy of Los Angeles, a petition containing 600 names of boys and girls attending the Oakland and Fremont high schools, has been sent to him. Unless clemency is extended by Governor Johnson, the prisoner, who is now in "death row" at San Quentin, will hang on April 23d.

Miss Alma Boyle, daughter of Harry Boyle, a member of the Board of Education, and Miss Lillian Brandon started the petition, which is as follows:

"We, the pupils of the public schools of California, learning that Louis Bundy, a boy 18 years of age, and the same age as ourselves, is under sentence to be hanged the latter part of April, and realizing that he has not had the advantages of an education, such as might have saved him from the commission of the crime, earnestly beseech You, Excellence, to commute the sentence of hanging, so that the boy may be placed in some institution where he can retrieve himself by a life of honor. We feel that, although he should be punished, the State owes him more consideration than to kill him without showing him the better way."

Grover Dusenberry suffered a sunstroke a mile back and occasionally appears to be irrational. Today Mrs. Dusenberry, his aged mother, missing her husband, went into the basement and found him lying unconscious on the floor. The boy, and the son standing over him with the ax still in his hand. She hurriedly called Dr. J. Snyder, while Dusenberry fled. He was captured running down Stanton street by Detectives Bierman and De Sa. Guerra and Patrolman Dowie.

SUPERVISORS NAME WEIGHT EXPERT

APPOINTMENT MADE TO CONFORM WITH CALIFORNIA LAW.

What is considered the most important gathering of representatives of every branch of the automobile industry and its legislative interests is taking place in Oakland today concluding a two days' session in which plans for changing the laws of the state for changing the automobile and its use are being discussed with a view of making recommendations to the legislature which in all probability will be carried into effect.

Percy Walker, president of the California State Automobile Association said today that without a doubt the meeting, which is being held in the office of Attorney John W. Stetson, is the most important on automobile legislation ever held.

It seems that the different interests have never been able to harmonize before but from the present outlook I believe there will be some advantageous legislation enacted on account of this "get-together" spirit. Yesterday we worked on the auto bill today will be spent in concluding the plan.

Secretary Paul Goldsmith of the Exposition Commission and Secretary J. E. Caine of the Chamber of Commerce-Commercial Club Consolidated, clashed over the terms of the lease of the old Chamber of Commerce building. The county had agreed to pay $300 monthly for the exhibit space on two floors of the structure.

Goldsmith demanded that the county be compelled to handle the telephone and also to care for janitor service. Caine and W. H. Weilbrey declared that the Chamber Building Association had made the lease without consulting their organization; that they did not know how they could have enough space and that they were not bound to pay the remainder of the rent demanded by the building association.

The Supervisors instructed Goldsmith and the commercial organization representatives to confer with the building association, reach an agreement, and lay the entire matter before the supervisors when settled among themselves.

Plans and specifications by William Wilde for a ward building on the county infirmary site were filed and accepted. The structure is to be a four-story building in wood frame, and will cost about $140,000. It will be built with Fred W. Johnson and C. O. Martin, for the Alameda County Exposition centerpiece, as ordered some time ago by the board was ratified.

ADmits FAILURE OF 16-HOUR LAW

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—That the federal 16-hour law, limiting the length of railroad trainmen's hours of work, had failed of its purpose because of technical applications by railroad officials was the statement today of Warren S. Stone, conducting the case of the engineers who are pleading for increased wages before a board of arbitration in Chicago. The statement was brought out when J. W. Higgins, general manager of the Missouri Pacific, who was undergoing cross examination by the representatives of the men, turned interrogator.

He asked Mr. Stone if the latter did not consider it fair for a road to use an engine crew for two hours after a 14-hour run when otherwise a fresh crew would have to be called and paid for a full day's labor under the new 16-hour law.

"Absolutely not," was the reply. "You could not work a mile that long without having the humane society after you. It was never the intent of the 16-hour law which I helped to frame, that men should be worked 16 hours as a matter of habit or by convenience to the roads. To that extent the law has failed of its purpose."

Similar instances in which the men and their employers accused each other of taking advantage of technicalities were brought up. Mr. Stone cited cases in which roads had refused to pay to widows of men killed in accidents the minimum wage of the men for the day on which they met death, the checks being for the exact mileage covered by the train.

Mr. Higgins said the very thought of such technical decisions was abhorrent to him and Mr. Stone and his associates agreed that the instances could not have happened had the witness been the governing authority.

The union leaders brought out that many superintendents who receive less than the engineers they supervise, as testified by Mr. Higgins yesterday, receive daily expense accounts and have private cars at their disposal.

"Do you think the Missouri Pacific can afford to give us what we ask here?" queried Mr. Stone.

"No," replied Mr. Higgins. "The Missouri Pacific system has not paid a dividend since 1907, and in that period it has increased its payrolls more than $3,000,000 a year. That condition must end."

WANTS ORANGE TREES TO ORNAMENT CITY HALL

Theo. M. Howells, 465 Edgewood avenue, petitioned the city council today that orange trees in full bloom, planted in large ornamental vases be placed on the lower deck or roof of the city hall as an ornamental decoration during the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

The trees would be placed about the eaves of the roof and would be visible from the street. They would present, according to Howells, a gay appearance, and would indicate that there is a semi-tropical climate north of Tehachapi.

The city commissioners were doubtful of the wisdom of the suggestion and referred the matter to Henry Hornbostel, architect of the city hall, who is in Oakland at the present time.

MILLIONAIRE HEINZ TO STAY IN OAKLAND

Victor Reiter, manager of Hotel Oakland, announced this morning that he expected H. J. Heinz, the millionaire pickle manufacturer, to arrive in Oakland tomorrow, where he will stay for the opening of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Heinz is traveling from Philadelphia by way of the Panama canal, and wired some weeks ago asking that reservations be made for himself and party. He chose Oakland as his temporary residence, according to a letter received by the management of Hotel Oakland, because he had heard of its accommodations and wished to be a little removed from the scene of action and also near enough not to miss anything.

GRANT DIVORCE APPEAL IS HEARD AT RENO

RENO, Feb. 11.—Arguments were heard in the Supreme Court yesterday on the appeal in the divorce suit of Jessie R. Grant against Elizabeth Grant, which was heard in Goldfield some time ago, when the decree was denied by Judge Somers.

Grant asked to have the case reopened on the grounds that he had not complied with the requirements relating to residence, lacking one day of six months' residence when he filed the original complaint.

The residence point was argued at length before the Supreme Court, Henry N. Hoyt appearing for Mrs. Grant and X. B. Moore for Grant.

Grant lived for six months lacking one day in Goldfield prior to filing suit for a divorce on grounds of desertion and Mrs. Grant contested the action with vigor.

BIG OIL SHIP, WITH NEUTRAL CREW, SAILS

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 11.—The Standard Oil Company's tanker Richmond, the most luxuriously fitted-up freighter afloat, left for Atlantic waters at 7 o'clock this morning with a cargo of 2,500,000 gallons of gasoline and a highly paid crew that has been specially selected and is composed of neutral nationalities.

The Richmond has cleared for Colon and New York, but it is understood by the thirty-nine men who signed on that the clearance will be changed at Colon and that after passing the canal the tanker will head for European ports.

In selecting the crew Captain Bunting insisted on men whose nationality is neutral. Not a single French, English, Russian or German sailor is on board.

LEXICON PRICES TO BE ADVANCED

Tribune Dictionary Offer Soon

Delays are dangerous and, as business demands the withdrawal of THE TRIBUNE'S dictionary, you have no time to lose. Even for the sake of further education of the public the present distribution cannot be continued. In a few days the proposition of supplying the big, little bundles of ready reference information bound in limp leather will be abandoned and the book that is worth $4 will be placed upon the shelves of the book stores, the presentation will end, and the sale at $4 a volume will be started.

You will have to hurry.

In an effort to bar ignorance and incompetence, in order to raise the standard of their work stenographers of Oakland are giving the educational campaign their unanimous support.

The reason for the low average wage paid the typists at the typewriters is that the employer who is anxious to better his or her condition obtains the best and easiest work of English ever compiled, the New Modern English Simplified Dictionary.

Practical experience has proved that by using the work as an examination, a perfect copy can be produced, and the arrangement of the employer that the employee is not worth more than the low salary paid may be successfully refuted.

The demand of stenographers for dictation is growing hourly and the result is sure to be more money and better work.

Just present 98 cents at THE TRIBUNE office as stated in the display announcement printed on another page of this issue.

NEW REVOLVERS HERE FOR NATIONAL GUARD

The war Department has recently issued the latest adopted pattern of Colt Automatic 45-caliber pistols to the members of Battery B of this city in place of the old regulation 38-caliber revolvers which they have carried since they were mustered in four years ago. This makes the equipment of the organization equal in every way to that of the regulars. One hundred and thirty of the new guns with their leather holsters have arrived and the men are looking forward with much enthusiasm to the next season's target practice.

The battery is planning a big stage affair for next Saturday night and an excellent athletic program, with some music to be followed by a big bean feed will give the artillerymen and their friends a good evening's entertainment.

SEATTLE POLICE PROBE UNEARTHS MUCH GRAFT

By Associated Press.

SEATTLE, Feb. 11.—That some branches of the police department are "putrid with graft" is the opinion expressed today by Prosecuting Attorney A. H. Lundin as the result of investigations he has been conducting since he took office last month. In his search for evidence, Lundin has been assisted by Police Chief Lang, a recent appointee.

The arrest of P. R. Schumann, a policeman for six years and Charles Shea, a cigar dealer, resulted yesterday from their investigations. Lundin says he has evidence that Schumann collected protection money from disreputable women on his beat and that the graft was left for him in an envelope at Shea's stand.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Among the passengers sailing yesterday for Liverpool on the steamship Adriatic, were three officers of the Japanese navy, who declined to divulge the nature of their mission other than to say that they were "students." They were Commander Yamasaki, Lieutenant Commander Y. Ootori and Lieutenant J. Morimoto.

Commander Yamasaki, who has gray hair, said the party came from the naval academy at Tokio and that its destination was London. Questioned as to whether they expected to be assigned as observers with the British fleet in the North Sea, the officers smiled but did not reply.

TAILORS IN COLD MARCH.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Fourteen tailors, delegates to the convention of the National Association of Merchant Tailors, paraded yesterday in Michigan avenue clad in summer suits of snowy flannel or creamy silk.

They have been a standard household remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and stomach trouble, and all diseases connected with the urinary organs. The kidneys and bladder are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers, the blood. If the poison which enters your system through the blood and circulates not entirely thrown out by the kidneys and bladder, you are doomed.

Weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, headache, pain in loin, and lower abdomen, gall-stones, gravel, difficulty when urinating, cloudy and bloody urine, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, all warn you to look after your kidneys and bladder. GOLD MEDAL Haarmen Oil Capsules are what you need.

They are not a "patent medicine" nor a "new-discovery." For 200 years

CITY LABORATORY PLANS DISCUSSED

Advising Board of Physicians and Civil Service Bureau
Hold Consultation.

At an executive session held by the civil service board in conference with a board of physicians appointed to assist Dr. A. F. Gillihan, the city health director, the matter of the handling of the city's laboratories was taken up and discussed for two hours last night. The health department has been growing and at the reorganization effected about the time that Dr. Gillihan was appointed as city health director, resulted in new conditions being established. An investigation made by the civil service board at the request of Dr. Gillihan has resulted in the question being raised as to the advisability of making a change in the method of handling the laboratory work. At the present time experts under Dr. R. A. Archibald are giving a portion of their time in the city's service, while they are engaged in private practice for the remainder of their time.

The advisory board of physicians has

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tell Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions, it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure, and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in urine; the pores of the skin are also means of ridding the blood of this irritant. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this acid which keeps accumulating, and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first sign of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is potassium, borax and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

ALAMEDA WILL AID IN PARADE

Twelve Thousand Marchers
From Island City
Promised.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 11.—The citizens committee appointed by Mayor Frank Orla to arrange for Alameda's participation in the monster parade on the opening day of the Panama-Pacific international exposition, February 20, held the initial meeting in the room of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday and discussed ways and means to secure the best showing of people.

Mayor Orla stated he had received a communication from Marshall Hall, chairman of the San Francisco committee, inviting Alameda to take part in the parade February 20, and had accepted this committee accordingly. There are to be no bands of music, bands or cessions, or of any kind, but a large number of people are expected to show their appreciation of the world's greatest exposition.

J. S. McDowell was selected chairman and F. E. Miller, secretary of the committee.

Silvers stated that he had been in communication with Paul T. Carroll, chairman of the parade committee, and said that the parade will commence at 10 o'clock, street and Island Avenue, about 8 o'clock, the opening of February 20, and that the various cities taking part will be assigned places on the side streets and will then fall in line in the general parade.

It is to be expected that the members of the Chamber of Commerce, it is estimated that Alameda should have a showing of at least 12,000 people.

Other committees, to be set up by various clubs, lodges, societies and other organizations throughout the city, are to be organized to estimate the number of their members expected to attend the opening day.

The committee, composed of Mayor Frank Orla, E. R. Bochard, W. S. McLean, J. S. McDowell, C. J. DuFour, Edward J. Silver, James Fowler, A. H. Wilkens, C. C. Adams, C. A. Bode, Dr. H. A. Miller and John Sedgley.

WOMEN'S CANDIDATE FOR DIRECTOR CHOSEN

EDITORIAL TRIBUNE: A non-partisan committee of women yesterday nominated Mrs. Mary E. Wright, a member of the school director in place of Mrs. Agnes C. Moody, who has declined to stand for re-election. For some time past there has been a feeling among the women of the city that the social welfare organizations in Berkeley, which should get together for the purpose of nominating and supporting women who might be suitable candidates for office. The candidates of the Civic Center in response to a call from the committee, at an informal meeting of 20 women representing the various phases of civic interest and laid the question before them.

It was the unanimous opinion at that meeting that the committee should be started on the broadest possible basis, and, without organizing, they adjourned to meet again on February 5, when a much larger number could be brought together. At the second meeting, held in quick succession, more than one hundred women from every district and representing every civic and social organization, were present and the proceedings, a number of eighteen women were placed on the nomination list by their friends. From this list, by preferential voting, five were selected and a committee, composed of Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Mary E. Wright and Mrs. A. C. Damon, was appointed to ask these five whether they would be willing to let their names be presented for nomination. Two out of five were willing to do so. The list was again reduced to a second preferential vote taken, and a third name secured for representation.

The three names thus placed on the preferred list were Mrs. Stacy Gibbs, Mrs. Mary E. Wright and Mrs. Agnes C. Moody. Upon invitation these women appeared and spoke to the meeting, and when they had finished from the roost, two votes were taken, with the result that Mrs. Moody was immediately chosen and the women present resolved themselves into a campaign committee to work for Mrs. Gibbs.

EDNA WOOD, a member who is interested in the welfare of the public schools, is invited to attend the next meeting of the committee at Unity Hall, Monday, February 15, at half past ten. MARY ROBERTS COOLIDGE.

HOSPITAL BRUTUS HELD FOR TRIAL

He Would Plead Guilty of the Attempt to Shoot Former Boss.

"The English tyrant shall rule no more," declared James McConville, charged with assaulting Harry Andon, engineer of Merritt hospital, with a deadly weapon, when he was asked whether he wanted to make a statement at the preliminary examination today. McConville went to the hospital February 5, called Andon into a hallway, and pulled the trigger of a revolver three times while pointing the weapon at Andon. Then Andon overpowered him.

McConville asked permission to plead guilty to the charge today. He was informed by Justice L. R. Williamson, sitting for Judge Mortimer Smith, that he would have to await his trial before the Superior Court before he could do so.

McConville, formerly a worker for Andon, and apparently never some imagined grievance against his superior, said, "I will not speak out," he told the court today. "It might mean that men employed at the hospital would lose their positions. Two men who formerly worked there could tell what the trouble is. One of them cried right after night because of the way he was treated. His fears should not have gone for nothing. I determined that the English tyrant should reign no more. I am sorry I did not succeed."

The police believe that McConville is not mentally sound. He was held to answer on the charge by Justice Weinmann and bonds were fixed in the sum of $2,000.

How to Gain Weight a Pound a Day

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 19 or 15 pounds a month, eat three fat sho.10 pounds of meat a day. Soreness and fatigue will be relieved.

The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from eight to twelve pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction.

And not at all, but a few pounds a day.

Sargol does not of itself make fat, but mixing with your food it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—providing a real energy and strength formula which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body to the waste. But Sargol stores the waste and does it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals more available for the body.
